THE candidates now scotching round to gather in the votes, Should bear in mind Windhorst & Blum, Are great on overcoats.
And any candidate in town,
Who will a good one wear, Will find when all the votes are in,
That he is safely there.

The gobble of the turkey grows fainter daily.

Five million bushels of coal are coming down the river from Pittsburg.

Messrs. W. W. Baldwin & Co. sold on Saturday to Mr. D. Arnham, of Pittsburg, twenty-three broke mules at $193 each.

An old sow yesterday afternoon destroyed a bunch of partridges and several rabbits for Mr. R. B. Loyel, of Market street.

Dr. John T. Hendrick will preach at the Third Street Presbyterian Church on Wednesday evening. Everybody is invited to be present.

Judge E. Whitaker a few days ago sold his crop of tobacco, about 10,000 pounds, to Thomas Best, for eighteen and one-half cents a pound.

A THANKSGIVING eve hop will be given at Washington Hall to-morrow evening under the best management. The occasion is certain to be a very enjoyable one.

Come, Adelpheans.
All the Adelpheans are requested to meet at Temple this afternoon at five o'clock sharp. Business of importance.

A hog that was in the act of running over a lady on Third street, yesterday afternoon, was shot with an air-gun by some person unknown. Unluckily it was not killed.

The office of wood and coal inspector is to be filled at the January election but as yet no person is announced as a candidate. This is the first time we have ever known the place to go begging.

The protracted meeting of three weeks' continuance at the South Methodist Church closed last night with an able sermon by Elder Gilbert, of the Christian Church. Forty-three have been added to the membership of that church since Dr. Henderson has been its pastor in the last two months.

Rev. S. H. Chester preached his farewell sermon at the Southern Presbyterian Church on Sunday, and will leave to-day for Charlotte, N. C., where he goes hoping to benefit his health by the change of climate. He has many warm friends in Maysville who will part with him with sincere regret. His work in Maysville has been very beneficial to the community.

For several days an unwonted stir has been noticed around the walls of the usually silent precincts there comes strange sounds, denoting some great event. One scribbled tried to gain admittance, but was met at the outer door by a stalwart sentinel who cried with threatening voice, "Procel, procel, O profani!" Can someone explain the mystery?

The following is from the Georgetown, Ohio, Democrat:

Prof. T. F. Leary, well known here, and a genial, pleasant gentleman, was circulating among Georgetown friends last week, called here on private business. The professor is now located in Maysville teaching bookkeeping. His last lecture, given at the Georgetown, which he has with hundreds of others received everywhere he has taught. We doubt much if he has his equal as a teacher of book-keeping and a pleasant gentleman one doesn't often meet.
He will probably organize a class here shortly as there are a number who desire to take a course under him.

Democratic Convention.

At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee held at the office of the chairman, on Nov. 26th to decide the manner and time of selecting a nominee of the party for the office of Sheriff for the years 1884 and 1885, Garrett S.
Wall presided as chairman and W. S. Cliff secretary.

On motion a delegate convention was called to meet at the court house in Maysville, Ky., on Monday, December 10, 1883, at 1:30 o'clock p. m., to select the Democratic candidate for the office of Sheriff for the ensuing August elections.
Preliminary meetings are to be held at three o'clock p. m. on Saturday, December 8, 1883, in each precinct, to select delegates to the convention to be held on the 10th of December. The Knott vote was taken as the basis of representation and one delegate given for every fifty votes cast for governor and one for each fraction of over twenty-five, which basis

PERSONALS.

Cadet A. P. Gooding, of the Kentucky Military Institute has been made a First Lieutenant.

Mrs. W. O. Giani and son, of Newport, will arrive by the Morning Mail to-day, on a visit to her father. Miss Ida Nicholson and a young lady friend will arrive also.

ONE of the greatest attractions with which Maysville has been favored in a long time is the Barney McAuley entertainment at the Opera House December 3. Mr. McAuley, who is a great favorite here, will appear at that time in his famous role of "The Jerseyman." Of course he will receive a royal welcome.

COUNTY POINTS.

MURPHYSVILLE.

Miss Minnie Stevenson is visiting friends at Flemingsburg this week.

Mr. Ringo and wife are visiting the family of Capt. David Wells, of this place.

It is feared that much of the pork recently will be lost, as the weather keeps so warm and wet.

Mr. Willis Berry, of the Lewisburg neighborhood, was visiting his daughter, Mrs.
Howard, at this place, Saturday.

Miss Lucy Pollitt, of Maysville, spent a part of last week with her brother's family, Pollitt, in company with Rev. F. S. Pollitt.

Mr. John Brooking, after a long illness of several months, died last Tuesday evening.
He was interred in the beautiful cemetery at Shelby.

Rev. F. S. Pollitt, of the Washington circuit, M. E. Church, South, preached three very acceptable sermons here last week, besides attending one funeral and doing some pastoral visiting. Come again, brother.

The literary society organized here last winter under the euphonious title of Philokallians, will hold their first meeting next week. They propose holding their future meetings in the church, and after the usual essays, readings, etc., to conclude with select church music.

One of our distinguished citizens, who has been boarding for a few weeks at the Hotel de Fitzgerald, says it is worth $100 a day, yet it was not the most desirable place to board if he could have had any choice in the matter, and that it all came about from too much business.

STONE LICK.

John Wallingford and wife, who have been visiting the family of Mr. Joe Wallingford, near Glen, have returned to their home near Fern Leaf.

A young gentleman of our acquaintance says it is such hard work to be industrious—that he could rather be lazy and sit in his house. A little "chickory-oil" well applied would be beneficial.

Mr. Mordise, of Millford, went to Cincinnati with a lot of hogs last Monday. Not having heard anything from him, Friday night except that he arrived in the city safe, his friends becoming alarmed, started to see about him, and found him at Fairmount quite enjoying himself.

The Fern Leaf string band is invited to give a musical entertainment Wednesday night at the home of Miss Ann Owens, near Horton Church.

Mr. Charlie Wallingford, who has been talking of going to Wisconsin this fall, has postponed his trip, because of business the cause.

There will be a church dedication in Millford Sunday next. The "Disciples" have been greatly improved by the insertion of yet they have not secured the services of a preacher. Why, most certainly, if they offer such inducement their Lord will send them one.

A certain young widow thinks the house of our esteemed bachelor friend, Mr. D.
Mayhugh, would not look so lonesome if it had a nice young house to preside over it.
Come, Mr. M., what do you say?

Having no teacher in our district, several of our young men are going to the Orangeburg school. Mr. Hall Pollitt is the teacher, and scholars speak very highly of him as such.

Hook Lee, near Kenton town, had some words with Jake Marshall, drawing a revolver shot at him three times without effect. Lee then fled. No harm in M.
Lee's carrying a revolver.

It is said that a great many of the horses taken to the Robertson county court to trade are so old and worthless they have to be killed. We think we think that rather a hard one on Robertson county stock.
REPOINTER.

SARDIS.

Charley Wood has removed from Shannon to Bourbon county the grow the white burley.

Mr. Joe Brady has sold his crop of tobacco all around.

Who will not drink a flowing bumper to the DAILY BULLETIN on its second birthday —the anniversary morning of its vigorous and useful career—and wish it many glorious returns.

Mr. Ed. Myall was with us on Friday last.
He was driving a spirited red Norman boggy nag for which he had refused $300.

We part with your Aberdeen correspondent, "Hippocampus," with regret. His paragraphs were lively and "Garden Gossip" an attractive sub of your live city. His nimble pencil flashed with scintillations of wit and telling his and lines of steady humor.

Mr. James Leavitt is having his town residence greatly improved by the insertion of larger windows, new hall and all the rooms re-papered and painted. If you want a new house made out of one, one Tom Fowler, Lef. Bratton and Chas. Moore can do the job for you.

Mrs. James Ball has returned to her home after an absence of six weeks, agreeably spent visiting her children and grand children, and sister in law in Lebanon county. During her absence "Pleasant Retreat" was presided over by her daughter, Miss Allie Chanslor, the young ladies spent the evenings and the evening called, and a most enjoyable time was had.

On every hand the busy note of preparation is heard for the approaching masquerade, mask and costume, pinnas and feather, wig and sandals, and the preparations for the coming pageant are in demand. Come beau and belle, bachelor and maiden, lead and lassie from town and country and let us have one night of genial social, pleasurable exultation. The Arcade, Thursday night, music, etc.

Escaping from the confinement of office, bank and school, a group of young friends Barry, Washburn, Sam Riley and Paul Wheeler, of the "honey acre city," were out this week indulging in the exciting sport of footing the white rabbits on the wing and the festive hour on the run. The crowd of old, they brought many trophies home, and passed their evenings at "Ashwood," the home of Miss Alice Watson, where the genial host and his interesting family made the city boys feel at home.

Two things, well considered, would prevent many debates. First, to have it well ascertained whether we are not disputing about terms rather than things. And secondly, to examine whether that on which we differ is worth contending about. Charles V. after his abdication, amused himself in his retirement at St. Juste, by attempting to make a number of watches go exactly together. Being unskillfully foiled in his attempt, he exclaimed, "What a fool I have been to neglect my own concerns, and to waste my whole life in a vain attempt to make all men think alike of matters of religion, when I cannot even make a few watches keep time together."

MARRIED.
November 27, 1883, at the residence of W. R.
Waller, Miss MARY PORTER WARDER to Mr. A. W. THOMPSON, all of Mason county.

OBITUARY.
Miss SARAH E. CONWAY, who departed this life on the 24th inst., near Torkington, the 88th year of her age, was the daughter of the late Richard Conway.
She united with the Methodist church eleven years ago, and lived a devoted Christian life until the day of her death. Her last words to her weeping friends were: "I will soon be with the Lord," and made an effort to sing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow"—failed and died.

Her funeral was attended by a large gathering of her friends and neighbors. Religious services by Rev. F. F. Sedwick.

Lost Faith in Physicians.

There are innumerable instances where cures have been effected by Scoville's Sarsaparilla, or Blood and Liver Syrup, for all diseases of the blood, when the patient has been given up by physicians.
It is one of the best remedies ever offered to the public, and as it is prepared with the greatest care, as a specific for certain diseases, it is no wonder that it is more effectual than hastily written and carelessly prepared prescriptions. Take Scoville's Blood and Liver Syrup for all disorders arising from impure blood. It is endorsed by all leading professional men.
